Nevada Kiwanis Newsletter

July 17, 2007

41 members were present on Tuesday morning and Meg Frederes had her son, Elliott as her guest. Steve Martens from the Major Emphasis Committee chaired the meeting.

GREETERS – Next week will be Bob Ehrig and Dario Zaffarano.

INVOCATION – Next week will be given by Laurie Anderson.

DRAWING – LeRoy Bergman's name was drawn and he had the right answer and he donated the money to Kids Against Hunger. Next week we start over.

CLUB NEWS – Assignments for the Can Project are going from a Tuesday to a Monday. Here are the coming assignments:

Don & Sue Seaton July 24th – 30th

Our Sweet Corn Feed will be held on Saturday evening July 28th. Dean Handsaker is passing out tickets for sale. Doug Anderson has put out a list of items that are needed to do the Sweet Corn Feed. Also, a sign up sheet for work times is going around.

The picking and selling season is also here and you need to be on deck at your appointed time or get someone else to work for you. The field where the corn is picked is 3 miles south of Highway 30 on the blacktop going to Hickory Grove and back ½ mile to the West.

DATES TO REMEMBER – July 28th Sweet Corn Feed, August 10th – 12th District Convention in Spencer and August 25th Kiwanis BBQ.

MEMBER NEWS – I apologize to FC Parrish for not including him in birthdays for last week. FC celebrated on the 18th.

Birthday greetings go out next week to Steve Martens who celebrates on the 24th and Ray Anderson who celebrates on 28th.

Congratulations to John and Louise Jennrich who celebrate their 50th Anniversary on the 27th.
