Nevada Kiwanis Newsletter

January 29, 2008

43 members were present on Tuesday morning. Linda Shickell had her daughter, Becky Funke as her guest and Bob Mittman had his wife, Barb and his daughter, Katie as his guests. We had three member from the Key Club.

GREETERS – Next week will be Doug Jones and Phil Page.

INVOCATION – Next week will be given by Paul Johnson.

DRAWING – Gary Gardner’s name was drawn but he was not present, so next week’s prize goes to $10.00.

CLUB – Signup sheet is going around for the Valentine Dinner and Dance, which will be held on February 14th. You are asked to either affirm that you are coming or state that you are not.

Jake reported that we had an Inter clubs to Town & Country and Division Council meeting in Ames on Saturday and to the Key Club on Monday.

Jody reports that our club will participate in a joint effort with the Ames clubs, Boone, Roland and Golden K to work the Farm Progress show, which will be held the last week in August.

FC Parrish, Sue Seaton and Jody each brought in two members last year, which was the most in your club. Congratulations to each of those individuals.

Stuffed animals (new or like new), shampoo, conditioner, lotion (travel size or motel), hairbrush, comb, activity books, deck of cards, sudoku books, stickers and flashlights are items needed for duffle bags to be filled at our meeting on February 26th. You are asked to bring these items any time in the time three weeks.

Meg Frideres reports that the Key Club will hold their Appreciation Breakfast for our club at 8 a.m. on February 16th at the high school.

PROGRAM – Harley Moon introduced Robert Densen, who was President of DMACC.

FACT OF THE WEEK – Groundhog Day has been celebrated in Punxsutawney, Pennsylvania every year since 1887.
