Nevada Kiwanis Newsletter

September 16, 2008

42 members were present on Tuesday morning and we had no guests.

GREETERS – Next week will be Mike Young and Jan Kitchen.

INVOCATION – Next week will be given by Jody Melcher.

DRAWING – Dean Handsaker's name was drawn and he was not present. However, Bob Collins reached him by phone in Colorado (probably a wake up call) and Dean told him to let it ride. Next week's prize goes to $15.00.

CLUB – Bob Ehrig sitting in for Jake reported that we had Interclubs to Jefferson, Boone Noon, Ames Town & Country and the Division Council.

COMING EVENTS – October 10th – Chili Supper.

FACT OF THE WEEK – On September 23, 1845 the Knickerbockers Baseball Club, the first baseball club to play under modern rules is founded in New York City.

MEMBERS NEWS – I apologize to Carol Bell who celebrated her birthday on the 16th. I am still getting all my facts and figures back together and hopefully I will be back up to full steam here from now on.
