Nevada Kiwanis Newsletter

October 14, 2008

46 members were present on Tuesday morning.

GREETERS – Next week will be Patrick Scully and Phil Page.

INVOCATION – Next week will be given by F.C. Parrish.

DRAWING – Bill Holstine's name was drawn but he let it ride. Next week's prize goes to $20.00.

CLUB – Once again we had a very successful Chili Supper even though the temperature that evening was probably not chili like. We netted about the same as last year. Special thanks go to Bob Mittman for the success of this venture.

Jody reported that we netted about $1,491.00 on the Farm Progress Show.

The can project assignments are Linda Shickell and Paul Hunter for the week beginning Oct. 14th; Ken Hawcott for the week beginning Oct. 21st and Lisa McCoy for the week beginning Oct. 28th.

COMING EVENTS – October 31st – Halloween Patrol and November 15th – Food for Hunger in Union.

FACT OF THE WEEK – On October 27, 1904, the first underground New York City subway line opened.

PROGRAM – Connie Burnett introduced Michelle DeMarie, who spoke on Ames Area Make-A-Wish Foundation.
