Nevada Kiwanis Newsletter

December 8, 2009

40 members were present on Tuesday morning and we had 3 choir members, who did not get the message that they did not have to perform on Tuesday morning.

GREETERS – Next week will be Ken Nelson and Eric Gabrielson.

INVOCATION – Next week will be given by Bill Holstine.

DRAWING – Kenna Lamberston’s name was drawn and she was present so next we start over.

CLUB NEWS – I want to make it clear that it is not a Christmas dinner on the 22nd but rather a Christmas breakfast for your spouse or significant other.

Greg Madsen wants everyone to stop in to US Cellular and get the card to be able to vote for application for funds for Nevada schools.

MEMBER NEWS – Birthday greetings goes out next week to Eric Gabrielson, who celebrates on the 12th; Laurie Anderson, who celebrates on the 13th and LeRoy Bergman, who celebrates on the 19th.

FACT OF THE WEEK – If you think the price of a house around here might be rather high consider the fact that a couple in New York bought a 175 square foot micro-studio 3 months ago for $150,000.00. It is 14.9 feet long and 10 feet wide.

PROGRAM – Tom Wissler introduced Ray Murray, who was the principal at the Nevada High School. Ray talked on Rigors or what it takes to make kids the best they can be.
